House Committee on Live Stock and Grazing Reports Anderson-Regan Bill for Indefinite Postponement.

LINCOLN, Feb. 15-(Special.)-House roll 125 has been reported for indefinite postponement by the house committee on live stock and grazing. It is the Nichols-Ragan bill prohibiting combinations in stock buying. The bill is aimed at the live stock commission firms of South

The committee on live stock and grazing, having the bill under charge, received a letter from the live stock exchanger stating that no raise will be made on charges for the next two years.

Delegation Makes Pledge. When the bill was up before the committee recently a delegation from South Omaha appeared and told the committee that if there was nothing done by the legislature at this session they would guarantee there would be no raise in charges.

Members of the committee asussred the South Omaha delegation that if they ould bind themselves not to raise rates for two years to come the bill would be postponed. This morning Chairman Dau of the committee received a letter from A. F. Stryker, secretary of the South Omaha, Live Stock exchange, which

No Raise Coming.

In pursuance to our guarantee to your committee Wednesday afternoon our president and vice president took up the matter with our beard of directors at a meeting held today and am pleased to inform you that the following resolution was unanimously adopted; by the board and is now a part of our records:

"The board of directors approves of the promise made to the effect that the rates and commissions on live stock now in efand commissions on live stock now in e fect shall not be raised for two years.

In the opinion of Chairman Dau and the committee this will fix the matter so that no legislation of a drastic nature is needed and will leave the matter up to the next legislature to handle the matter at the expiration of the two-year limi,
